I've decided that I am going to do battle for my philosophy. You ought to believe something in life, believe it so fervently that you will stand up with it till the end of your days. I can't make myself believe that God wants me to hate. I'm tired of violence. And I am not going to let my oppressor dictate to me what method I must use. We have a power, power that can't be found in Molotov cocktails, but we do have a power. Power that can not be found in bullets and guns, but we have a power. It's a power as old as the insights of Jesus of Nazareth and as modern as the techniques of Mahatma Gandhi. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
